ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

4. Subject to the terms of this Order, the Debtors' employment of KPMG LLP to perform additional international executive tax services pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Application is approved pursuant to sections 327(a), 328(a), and 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 2014 of the Bankruptcy Rules, effective nunc pro tunc to January 18, 2006.
5. KPMG LLP shall be compensated for fees and expenses in accordance with the standards and procedures set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and all applicable Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Local Rules"), guidelines established by the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee"), and further orders of this Court.

6. KPMG LLP, shall ensure that it does not charge the Debtors' estates for duplicative services.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the engagement letters attached to the Application (the "Engagement Letters"), KPMG LLP, without the Debtors' prior written approval, may subcontract a portion of its responsibilities under the Engagement Letters to any of the member firms of KPMG International (the "KPMG Member Firms"); provided, however, that KPMG LLP shall remain fully and solely responsible for all of KPMG LLP's liabilities and obligations under the Engagement Letters.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Engagement Letters, KPMG LLP shall be solely responsible for all of KPMG LLP's liabilities and obligations under the Engagement Letters, whether incurred or performed, in whole or in part, by KPMG LLP, any affiliate of KPMG LLP, any KPMG Member Firm, or any of their respective affiliates. 11. KPMG LLP's limitations of liability, as set forth in the Engagement Letters, shall not apply to claims arising out of KPMG LLP's own bad-faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty (if any), gross negligence, or willful misconduct or any other limitation thereon set forth in the Application.

12. Any party-in-interest shall have the right to raise the issue of the application of KPMG LLP's prepetition retainer to postpetition fees and expenses.

13. To the extent that this Order is inconsistent with the Engagement Letters, this Order shall govern.

14. With the exception of KPMG LLP, the KPMG Member Firms providing services under the Engagement Letters shall be permitted to use category codes to describe the time spent on services rendered, rather than the more detailed descriptions usually required for fee applications.

15. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Order.

16. The requirement under Local Rule 9013-1(b) for the service and filing of a separate memorandum of law is deemed satisfied by the Application.
